

RoHS Compliance Statement

RoHS Directive

Directive 2002/95/EC (RoHS 1) took effect on 1 July 2006 and restricts the use of ten hazardous materials in the manufacture of electrical and electronic equipment.

Directive 2011/65/EU (called CE-marking directive) replaced Directive 2002/95/EC (RoHS 1) and entered into force on 21 July 2011. Known as RoHS II, this expanded the scope of products covered and imposed new obligations on EEE manufacturers to prepare EU declaration of conformity and affix CE markings on finished products.

On 4 June 2015 a new Directive (EU) 2015/863 was published amending Annex II of RoHS II (Directive 2011/65/EU) adding Category 11 products and four phthalates; DEHP, BBP, DBP and DIBP to the list of restricted substances, The 4 phthalates are mainly used as insulation plasticizers, and are on the REACH list of SVHC (Substances of Very High Concern). Totally, 10 hazardous substances will now be restricted in EEE under RoHS

Restricted Substances under EU RoHS

Restricted substances referred to in Article 4(1) and maximum concentration values tolerated by weight in homogeneous materials are listed here,

Implementation

Restriction of Phthalates under RoHS are restricted from 22 July 2019 for all electrical and electronic equipments apart from Category 8 (medical devices) and Category 9 (monitoring & control equipment) that will have an additional two years to comply by 22 July 2021.

Exempted Product Categories

The list of RoHS exemptions is given in the Annexes III and IV of the Directive 2011/65/EU (EU RoHS 2) and the exempted product categories can be found in the links:
